

When to use "quel" in French and its English equivalents:

"Quel" is a versatile French word used to ask questions

1. Asking about identity or nature:

Example : Quel est ton nom ? (What is your name?)

Quel livre as-tu lu ? (Which book did you read?)

2. Asking for a description or characteristic:

Quelle est la couleur de ta voiture ? (What is the color of your car?)

Quel temps fait-il aujourd'hui ? (What is the weather like today?)

3. Asking for a choice among several options:

Quel gâteau veux-tu ? (Which cake do you want?)

Quel film allons-nous voir ? (What movie shall we watch?)

4. "Quel" can sometimes be translated as "which" or "what kind of" depending on the context:

Quel genre de musique aimes-tu ? (What kind of music do you like?)

"Quel" agrees with the noun that immediately follows it.
